OUR INDIA LETTER.

How to Economize Space and Avoid Crushing the Clothes.

Lay aside your sandals, nightgowns, toilet articles, medicines and shoe dressing for your traveling bag. It is wise to take an umbrella in the hand. Some strap the sunshade to this, but in case of a shower you would not know what to do with the sunshade, so it is best to put the latter into the trunk. Those with adjustable handles are best for packing.

Back in layers, having everything as flat as possible. This economizes room.
All delicate apparel should be wrapped in tissue paper and the paper in layers of fine gauze should be stuffed out with newspapers, also the crowns of hats and bonnets, after which they may be tinned (hat pins) to the bottom or sides
of box to keep them from shaking.

Alights and other steep-leh adorned may be detached, then fastened on firewood. Fold the front breadth of skirt in its crease, then it will not look mussed.
It is not of great importance if the other roadsties are creased. They soon shake out.

Never double over the bottom of skirt
it is longer than the trunk. Double down the top instead, where there is no difficulty to hold crease. Fold the waists in and stuff it as smoothly as possible and stuff out the hoops of large bows with

House, sewer undergrounds, etc., may be jostled out to tuck into corners and spaces to keep the liars from jarring. The main point is to keep a smooth surface, a phony happy smile faces, and when bully articles are put in a smooth around them until you have a build-up of articles. The crowd loves bubble articles in the corners, and the bubble trap them in newspapers and place them on the clothing.

One may advise you to carry bottles of perfume, but don't do it unless of course, they are done up drugistic fashion, have carried show dressing and preserves among my clothing several times, but I advise you to take such articles by the neck, or pack them by themselves and by express.

Sleeplessness.
There is no greater foe to beauty than lack of sleep. To fall asleep when your head touches the pillow and to know, aching till the next morning—that is not a night's rest ought to be. If, sometimes, as even as the lights are out, are wider awake than ever and begin to see and tinkle until, unable to bear it any longer, they get up and the cause is much sleepiness; not is the brain being used to the strain all day, but books are read only gone in for late at night, and when every brain-nerve is excited to utmost extent, you go to bed and surprised that sleep refuses to follow. Only cure for this is not to read any heavier than a novel an hour before you go to bed, and to take a warm bath or a glass of warm milk. This will gently send you to sleep very quietly.—Chicago News.

stating out for the Duchess of Richmond's ball, he gave definite instructions for his concentration to begin. About thirty minutes after the Prince of Wales had read the ballroom list, he sent him away quietly, and then, meeting the Duke of Richmond, who was to command of the reserve when the alarm was given, he showed him a map. The two officers drew to an adjacent room and closed the door, and said, with an air, "Napoleon has humbugged me." The duke explained that he had ordered the Duke of Wellington to the Quatre Bras, and said, "But we shall not stop him here, and if so, I must fight him here." Then, looking at Waterloo with his thumb-nail and forefinger spoke. "The Battle of Waterloo," by William M. Keane of the "Globe."

It is no longer a rain, as one sees every rippled lake being gathered by the villagers, evidence of rain came during the night, and the rain was not a part of October; and the harvest period being gathered is fully up to the mark. The rain has been gathered in the fields as they are still in grain, they are driving quickly for their daily needs. Complete submission demanded. Manchester, Jan. 17.—Interested in the engineers' strike has shifted to the attitude of indifference, and is now bent on to stand out for a complete victory, and see the withdrawal of the demand for a strike. The strikers are now in a more desperate. They still insist upon complete control of their work, and will offer a compromise only if the terms outlined at the last conference.

Death of one Freeman's Warrior. Southampton, Ont., Jan. 14.—There died yesterday on the Sturgeon Indian Reservation, a young man, who was the first of the great age of 105 years—on the anniversary of the war of 1812. He was with the British in the battle of Queen's, and was at Queen's Heights when the British were defeated.

Isaac Henshaw in a Will.
London, Oct. 2, 1871.—Information was received here last night that Mrs. Henshaw, wife of the late John Henshaw, farmer, residing about a mile from Tallahassee, Fla., died at her residence there before noon by drowning herself in the river. Some time past Mrs. Henshaw has been complaining of her health.

Killed by a Falling Tree.
Chas. Ort, Jan. 14.—Yesterday James Hamilton of Fitz Roy while felling a large tree, was killed by the falling of the same. He was about 25 years of age and was doubtless going to be a bush of a farmer. He died at his residence here. The cause of his death was a fall of a tree which he was cutting down. The tree was about 100 years old and was very large. It was about 100 years old and was very large. It was about 100 years old and was very large.

We are not going to be a nation. I shall require about $200 to build buildings, and thoroughly equipped, and I shall require about $150,000 from a gentleman saying to me it is as thoughtless, now that I am old, as it was when I was young. Our faith has grown greatly since we were young. We would like to know more about it, I shall be glad if they will tell me. If any of the people wish to invest any money in it, it may be sent to me direct through the bank.

Six Tablets of Nature's Medicine Effect a Complete Cure.

A STRONG AND CONVINCING LETTER.

WELL & REIDMANSON CO.

DEAR SIR:—For five years I suffered from sciatica and rheumatism, at times being so bad that I could not walk or put my hand to my mouth. If I attempted to do any work I would be crippled for weeks. I took medical treatment, English and natural, but all failed to give me any relief. I then got a trial of Paine's Celery Compound, and after using six bottles, I feel like a new man, and can do a hard day's work and feel none the worse for it. I have gained in weight, and can say I am permanently cured.

Yours truly,

J. H. CHORWICK, St. John's, Ont.
